March On begins and ends with 2009 National Equality March. The real story centers around the five featured families.

Why did they take time off work, spend money and travel to Washington DC? What were their hopes and how did it change their lives?

March On offers the stories of two moms who made a road trip to states where there is marriage equality and started a website~ AreWeMarried.Com, a married lesbian couple from California who are one of the 18,000 allowed to marry before Prop 8, a New York gay couple who have been together 32 years and wrestled with religious bigotry, a man who served in the Navy for 5 years and was dismissed under Don't Ask, Don't Tell, and a life long activist who has traveled this road for over 40 years.

You will see Lady Gaga, Lt. Dan Choi, Michelle Clunie, Cleve Jones, Staceyann Chin and Cynthia Nixon. You will see the queer youth who led the march, visit the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier and sit on the grass in front of Congress but, more importantly, you will meet people who are courageous and inspiring, who came to Washington DC, October 11, 2009 to demonstrate that they believe in Equality.

Their stories are the reason we march. March On.
